

Agenda WGA Board meet April 28, 2026

Old Business

Prompt for MAY: Are We There Yet? – Memoirs

Prompt for JULY: Summer's Dreams - Poetry

Vana has asked to have her memoir published without photographs. It has not yet been fully accepted.

The April/May newsletter did not arrive in some people's inbox. Phyllis got hers, but I did not and neither did Brandon's. He will investigate the roster.

I seem to remember asking for contacts at ULL or SLCC. Any progress on that?

New Business

Need ideas, speakers for June, August.

Should we do another 'fun activity' in May? Some folks enjoyed it.

The Moncus Park pavilion is now open. Is there any news on who will be invited to set up, and the cost? WGA booth doesn't need electricity, which I assume will be a big draw.

Soon we will need to order more tote bags. Current ones cost about $7.00 each. We sell them for $10 but haven't sold many.

Website: Can we create a button for "Subscribe to the newsletter"?

In the Newsletter, Brandon suggests these topics for workshops.

Writing Workshops (In Progress!)

Interested in learning from some local wordsmiths, but dread forking out the dough in exchange for homework? The WGA is working on putting together some writing workshops led by experienced members of the literary community. Potential workshops could be:

- Self-editing
- Character voice
- How to publish

And many more! If you have any specific topics you would like a workshop to be built around, don't hesitate to bring it up to one of the board members either at a meeting or by email/phone. Once a workshop topic is decided on, a sign-up sheet will be generated and a date and time decided upon if enough interest is shown.
